

Japan Association of Global Governance

The Second Research Meeting

Programme

Date: April 6th, 2013 Saturday, from 10:00am

Place: Ritsumeikan University, Yoyokan Bldg.

Japan Association of Global Governance
The Second Research Meeting/Programme

Global Governance and Normative Idea

April 6th, 2013

10:00–12:00

I Free Topic Session

PLACE: Yoyokan No. 964

Moderator & Discussant :

Takehiko YAMAMOTO, Waseda University

Speakers :

Naoko TOYOSHIMA, The Institute of Oriental Philosophy,

“Human security in East Asia“

Yuko HOSOI, Saitama University,

“Does Deliberative Democracy Solve Aggregation Problems on Liberal Democracy?

—A Critical Verification of Deliberative Democracy Theory— (TBC) ”

Keita HASHIMOTO, Doshisha University,

“Making Transnational Accountability Work in the International Standardization of Social Responsibility”

13:00–15:00

II Environmental Regime in Global Governance

(co-organizer : Kansai Association for the Study of Political Society (ASPOS, Kyoto))

PLACE: Yoyokan No. 964

Moderator: Tatsuro NIIKAWA, Doshisha University

Speakers:

Hironori HAMASAKI, Research Institute for Humanity and Nature (RIHN),

“ Governance in water resources management – Case study of the Mekong River basin”

Mikiko SHIMAOKA, Waseda University,

“Current Status and Future Challenges of Multi-stakeholder Processes in Multilateral Cooperation:
Focus on Environmental Governance in East Asia”

Kenro TAURA, Kiko Network,

“Roles and Activities of Environmental NGOs, Challenging the Climate Change Prevention”

Discussants :

Ken'ichi NAKAGAMI ,Ritsumeikan University, College of Policy Science

Yoshinobu ARAKI, Musashino University

III Global Governance in History

PLACE: Yoyokan No. 965

Moderator: Hideki KAN, Kyoto University of Foreign Studies

Speakers:

Tadashi YAMAMOTO, The University of Kitakyushu,

“The Introduction and Establishment of The EU Majority Voting System:
Governance Meets Self-restraint and Endurance”

Sachiko HIRAKAWA, Waseda University,

“Postwar Japanese Diplomacy and Open Regionalism: the origin of 1955”

Discussant: Yasuhiro MATSUI, Kyushu University

15:15–17:30

IV Global Governance and Normative Idea

(Co-organizer : Japan Society for Public Interest and Common Goods Studies)

PLACE: Yoyokan No. 958

Moderator: Koji FUKUDA, Waseda University

Speakers:

Noboru MIYAWAKI, Ritsumeikan University,

“The <as if game> in the global governance”

Atsushi KONDO, Ritsumeikan University ,

“Lies and Competitions of Norms in International Politics

— <as if game> and Issues of Visiting Japanese Ports of U.S. Nuclear-Armed Ships—”

Takahiro NOZAKI, Osaka University of Economics and Law ,

“Discourse Analysis of Competing Norms: A Preliminary Consideration”

Discussant : Satoshi OYANE, Doshisha University

18:00–20:00 Reception

PLACE: Calme (in Kinugasa Campus)

Fee: 3,000 yen

Secretariat Yoyokan No. 960

Waiting Room Yoyokan No. 967

*The Meeting Programme will be also updated in the webpage of Japan Association of Global Governance.

<http://globalgovernance.jp/>

*A participating application is also possible on a website.