

Japan Association of Global Governance

The 8th Research Meeting

Co-organized with
Japan Society for Public Interest and Common Goods Studies

Programme

Waseda University
14-15 May 2016

Saturday 14 May
10:00 – 12:00

Section 1 Harmony and Conflict between Governance and Democratization in the Age of Globalization

Speakers:

SUGIURA, Koichi. Wayo Women's University
Is it possible to democratize global governance?

WATANABE, Tomoaki. Kyushu University
Democratization in Global Environmental Governance

SATO, Makoto. Ritsumeikan University
Dilemma of Rwanda : Democratization or Good Governance?

Discussants:

HATSUSE, Ryuhei. Kyoto Women's University
MATSUI, Yasuhiro. Kyushu University

Moderator:

CHIJIWA, Masatsugu. University of Kitakyushu

12:00–13:30 Lunch Time Party

13:30 – 15:30

Section 2 Reconsidering the Order Formation of Post-War Asia

Speakers:

MATSUMURA, Fuminori. Utsunomiya University
The Sino-Soviet Burden Sharing System in East Asia: the Origins, Rearrangement and the Failure (1950s)

KANDA, Yutaka. Niigata University
The Transformation of Cold War Structure in Asia and the Soviet-Japanese Relations: From Détente to Stagnation

HIRAKAWA, Sachiko. Waseda University
Regional Order Making of Postwar Southeast Asia: Socio-Economic

Initiatives by the UK and Japan

XU, Xianfen. East China Normal University

A Chinese Concept of the Asian Order: USA Factors in the Political Stance towards Japan

Discussants:

MORI, Kazuko. Waseda University

KAN, Hideki. Kyoto University of Foreign Studies

Moderator:

SHUTO, Motoko. University of Tsukuba

13:30 – 15:30

Section 3 Qualitative and Quantitative Analytical Tools for Studies of International Norms

Speakers:

HIGASHINO, Atsuko. University of Tsukuba

Constructivist Analysis of International Norms: A Perspective from European Integration Studies

NISHITANI, Makiko. Kobe University

The Theory of Orchestration in the Global Governance: Case of Global Anti-Corruption Governance

FUKUI, Eijiro. Keio University

A Quantitative Analysis of International Norms from the Perspective of EU Perceptions Studies

Discussant:

YUKAWA, Taku. Osaka University

Moderator:

ADACHI, Kenki. Ritsumeikan University

15:45 – 17:45

Plenary Session Global Security Commitments and Domestic Debate: Beyond Security Dilemma

Speakers:

ISHIKAWA, Taku. National Defense Academy
On Japan's Efforts to Boost Deterrence and Globalization of Japan-US
Alliance

MAESHIMA, Kazuhiro. Sophia University
Domestic Factors in American National Security Policy: Recent Developments

NAKAMURA, Toshiya. Nagoya University
Global Engagement and Domestic Discourses regarding Security Policy: In the case of Germany

Discussant:

ISHIDA, Atsushi. University of Tokyo

Moderator:

WATANABE, Hiroataka. Tokyo University of Foreign Studies

Sunday 15 May
10:00 – 12:00

Section 4 New Challenges for Global Governance

This section is co-organized with Japan Society for Public Interest and Common Goods Studies.

Moderator:

KARUBE, Keiko. St. Andrew's University

Speaker:

IWATA, Eiko. National Institute for Defense Studies
A Study on Women and Security: Diffusion, Localization and

Institutionalization of International Gender Mainstreaming Norm and its Implications from the Case Studies of UNSCR 1325 National Action Plans

Discussant:

KAWAMATA, Kazuko. Rissho University

Speaker:

SUGAWARA, Emi. Osaka University of Economics and Law

Transnational Implementation of International Human Rights Standards: the Regulation of Companies in Human Rights Governance

Discussant:

UMEDA, Toru. Reitaku University

Speaker:

NAKAJIMA, Tomohito. Sanno Institute of Management

Combining Economic and Social Motivation for Social Purpose: the Development of the Community Interest Company Legislation in the UK and its Implications for Japan

Discussant:

OMORI, Sawa. International Christian University

12:00 – 13:30 Lunch Time

13:30 – 15:30

Session 5 Chinese Versions of Global Governance

Speakers:

YU Minhao Nagoya University of Commerce & Business

China and Global Governance: Discourses, Intentions and Implications

WADA, Hironori. Aoyama Gakuin University

How to Understand Rising China's "Offensive" in International Economic Governance

MIFUNE, Emi. Komazawa University

China's "One Belt, One Road" initiative: Seeking a New Model of Global Governance?

Discussant:

AMAKO, Satoshi. Waseda University

Moderator:

KAMO, Tomoki. Keio University

Access to Waseda University